

City of Albuquerque Toastmasters Club
Shape your words and your future.

Cityspeakers Toastmasters Club

What: Cityspeakers Toastmasters club

A friendly and supportive environment where you can improve your public speaking skills.

Who: City Employees

Members include employees in the Pre-Management Development Program and others wanting to improve their speaking skills and improve confidence.

Toastmasters is also great for people who think they have a fear of public speaking or have never spoken in public.

Why: A proven way to become a better speaker

Toastmasters will give you the skills and confidence you need to effectively express yourself in any situation and the ability to improve your leadership skills and give you the confidence you need to become a more effective leader.

When:

Club Meeting times: Thursdays from 12:30 to 1:30 pm.

Location: Public Service University, Basement of City Hall (and other locations)

Cost:

To visit: Free

Dues: $36 (for 6 months)

Learn more:

For more information, please contact Linda, by calling 924.3342 or emailing lrumpf@cabq.gov